BLUEEY DARLING

TUSCULA

Crops are damaging considerably on account of the continued drought here.

There hasn't been rain sufficient to thoroughly wet the ground since early in June. There has been a little rain but no heavy wetting rains. Other sections have had plenty of rain but it has missed here.

The primary passed off very quietly with a light vote. No person seemed to be interested and about 1/4 of the voters came out and voted.

Fred See and others were through here Friday in the interest of Willis. They had plenty to say about the other candidates and extolled the merits of Willis. We don't know what they left in their wake. At times they were speeding at the rate of forty or fifty miles per hour and there were some narrow escapes.

School began here last Monday with very good attendance.

There will be a picnic social at Obolville Saturday evening August 18th. The proceeds will be used to construct a bridge across the creek so pupil children can reach the school house in bad weather. Come and enjoy the evening with us and be convinced that the girls here understand the art of making pies.

Shirley, Chat, Jennings and Burgess Webb were guests of Madge Ray, Marie and Luther Cunningham Sunday.

Dan Harman and Adlai Jordan were at Green Valley Sunday.

Elmer Graham left last week for Cincinnati where he will work for some time.

James Prichard's mother, who lives in Boyd county, is spending a few days with her son and family here. She has passed her three score years and ten but she is strong for her years.

Hobart Brainerd, who has been at Portsmouth, O. for some time came home Sunday for a few minutes stay.

S. W. Graham undertook to cross the hill from the Webbville pike to Tuscula Saturday but his Ford hadn't power enough to go through the mud. He made the circuit home by Cadmus and Little Catt. Think of being in sight of home and then having to go ten miles in a round about way to get there.

Dr. Nelson Rice and wife of Blaine are visiting friends and relatives in the neighborhood of Dennis.

Charley Rice and family were at Dennis Sunday. OIL LEM JUCKLENS.

RAILROAD STRIKE CRISIS IS NEAR

Mediation Board Ready to Offer Service.

GOMPERS ISSUES STATEMENT

Declares That the Federation of Labor Will Stand Firmly Behind the Men in Their Demand For an Eight-Hour Day.

New York, Aug. 3.—Nineteen men, representing 225 railroads of the United States, have the power of deciding today whether the nation shall be plunged into a disastrous tie-up of all steam traffic facilities. They received the word: "It is up to you," from spokesman for 400,000 men and they sweated over the ultimatum through the afternoon and long into the night, at the offices of Chairman Elkins Lee in the Grand Central Terminal building. When the conference was ended no word was forthcoming as to any decision that may have been reached.

"We can say nothing," declared Mr. Lee, "because it would not be fair to the four brotherhoods to tell the public before we tell them. And furthermore, it would be foolish to tip our hands."

Indications are that a deadlock may be the result when the two sides meet in the Engineering Society's building. One railroad official, a member of the conference committee, said:

"This much is certain: Arbitration is still a long way off. And as for mediation, no steps have been taken toward it, that we know of. The presence of William B. Wilson, secretary of labor, in the city, means nothing in regard to the national railroad strike, because he has no power in the situation. We have not seen him."

Judge W. L. Chambers and G. W. W. Hauger of the United States board of mediation and conciliation are on the ground ready to offer their services to the contending parties.

Under the law the board of mediation is not authorized to offer its services until asked to intervene by interested parties, or until a tieup is imminent, but in view of the magnitude of the threatened trouble it was said that an offer to mediate might be made should the employees and the men fail to get together.

That the American Federation of Labor stands squarely behind the men in their demands for an eight-hour day was made plain in a letter addressed to officials of the unions involved by President Gompers and made public here. The communication was sent on behalf of the executive council to the secretaries of the Order of Railway Conductors and the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen and Locomotive Firemen and Engineers. In it Mr. Gompers said:

"It is our most earnest hope that the railway companies may be induced to take a broad-minded and humanitarian view of your demand. When the full meaning of the eight-hour day and realize the material, moral and social advantages that will inevitably result from its establishment, they can not refuse to concede to the workers the boon of the eight-hour day—and concede without imposing upon the workers the necessity of cessation of work in order to establish your demand."

"Regardless of whether your purpose is secured by the voluntary agreement of the railway companies or whether it is necessary for the railway men to strike to obtain this just and necessary protection, the American Federation of Labor pledges to the brotherhoods its support and sympathy in the effort to accomplish that which is fundamental for the protection and betterment of the railway men."

RICHARDSON

In loving remembrance of Lillie, youngest daughter of Arch and Mary Borders, who departed this life Aug. 4, 1916, aged 29 years 4 months.

She leaves father, mother, two sisters, three brothers and a host of friends and relatives to mourn her loss. But we feel sure that their loss is heaven's gain. Death always chooses a shining mark. Lillie was a sweet girl and loved by all who knew her. She was sick six months of tuberculosis. She was converted four years ago and had lived a true devoted christian life up to the time of her death. Lillie is not dead. She has only fallen asleep in the arms of Jesus all was done for her that loving hands could do, but she was too fair a flower to bloom in this cold world. Weep not, dear parents, for Lillie. But prepare to meet her on that celestial shore where no good byes are spoken. Look away from the vacant chair and the empty cot, the silent room and the lonely grave. Look up to Heaven and think of that joyful meeting with Lillie where you will never have to part. She will be missed in her home and by his many friends, but do not mourn for her as those who have no hope. May God bless the father, mother, sisters and brothers of this sweet girl that they may live as when this life is over they will meet Lillie again.

Just before her spirit took its flight she called all her brothers to her bed side and make them all promise to meet her in Heaven. May God help them to keep their vow, and meet her where parting is no more.

A FRIEND.

AUTUMN "WALKING DRESS."

This attractive tunic is built of deep wistaria gardenia combined with a matching satin. White beading on the belt, white pentine collar and cuffs and a tucked up tunic are all distinctive points of style.

AUTUMN'S MODEL

Experts say the French dressmakers are favoring the long silhouette instead of the hourglass. This gown was designed to support such decrees. It is made of the finest, a medium low bust and long skirt without much beading. It is especially adapted to slender figures.

AUTOMOBILE WENT 'OVER AN EMBANKMENT

James Gay, age 26 years, of Charleston, W. Va., was crushed to death early last Thursday morning when his automobile went over a steep embankment near Milton.

Gay was alone in the car, and it is supposed was driving at a high rate of speed. The accident was at what is known as the old Killmore creek fill near Milton. The car was traveling toward Milton.

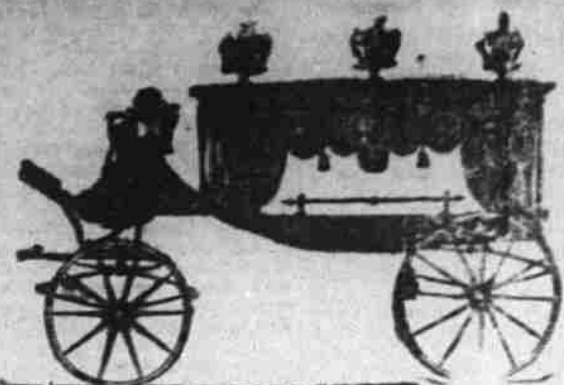

Although none saw the accident, it is believed the machine struck a rut in the road causing Gay to lose control of the steering wheel. The machine skidded in the darkness and went over the 50-foot declivity.

Gay's chest was crushed in life died almost instantly. His body was not thrown out of the car, and was found crumpled up in the driver's seat.

CASH IN ADVANCE PLAN TO BE ADOPTED

On October 15th, 1916, the Big Sandy News Subscription List will be on a New Basis, and the Paper will be Sent Only until the Date Paid in Advance.

INCREASED COST OF PRODUCTION FORCES THIS CHANGE

As announced in the above headline the Big Sandy News will change its policy in handling the subscription list. We are compelled either to increase the subscription to $1.50 per year or to take steps that will stop all leaks and waste. We hope by doing the latter to keep the subscription price at one dollar.

We are making announcement of our new policy several months in advance of its adoption so that all our friends and subscribers will have ample time to get on the new basis.

It has been customary from "time immemorial" almost, for country papers to extend credit to subscribers and to continue sending the paper until death, poverty, disease, hopeless delinquency, or an earthquake caused a break. This is bad business and oftentimes very unsatisfactory. Some people get the impression that the publisher is trying to force the paper on them. This is one thing the publisher of the Big Sandy News can truthfully say he has never intended nor had any desire to do. In soliciting we do not even insist strongly upon anyone subscribing for the paper, because we never want to push it upon any person.

Our efforts are directed chiefly to making a paper worth the subscription price. Nevertheless, a few people seem to think the paper is being forced upon them when it continues beyond the date paid for.

On the other hand, we have had a number of subscribers to recent our action in stopping the paper at the expiration of the period paid for, saying it was a reflection on their credit. This is the source from which we anticipate most of the trouble that is likely to come in changing to a strictly cash in advance system. But when the change is made it will be absolutely necessary to enforce it impartially. The mailing list will be in charge of an employee who doesn't know any better than to stop every subscription at its paid expiration.

Although as above stated, the proposition has two sides, we believe our friends and patrons will like the new system better. We ask their kind cooperation in establishing this new business-like plan.
